It having been represented to the People's territorial central committee that several of the council district conventions held in July, 1887, failed to provide for the calling of future representative conventions, to avoid any lapse or misunderstanding, council and representative district conventions of the People's party of Utah are hereby called to convene at the times and places hereinafter named, for the purpose of placing in nomination candidates for members of the council and house of representatives of the twenty-ninth session of the legislative assembly, to be voted for at the general election, on the first Monday in August, 1889.

The representative district conventions will be composed of thirty delegates, as located from the several precincts of the district, according to the apportionment hereinafter named, and will meet at the place indicated on Saturday, July 6, 1889, at 12 m. In addition to nominating a candidate to represent a district in the house of representatives, each convention will elect two delegates to represent the district in the convention of the council district to which it is attached.

The council district conventions will be composed of twenty delegates to be selected by the representative district conventions, one-half from each district and will meet at the places hereinafter mentioned on Wednesday, July 10, 1889, at 12 m. and nominate candidates to represent their several districts in the council of the legislative assembly.

Primaries for the selection of delegates to the several representative district conventions will be held in each precinct of the territory at the usual place of holding elections therein on Monday, July 1, at 5 p.m.
